Restaurants are able to expand services, as long as they adhere to the following conditions:

a. Restaurants are encouraged to continue offering food and beverage using delivery service, window service, walk-up service, curbside delivery, drive-through service, or drive-up service, and to use precautions in doing so to mitigate the potential transmission of COVID-19, including social distancing. Online and telephonic credit card transactions are strongly encouraged (e.g. Venmo, Squarecash, Google Pay, Apple Pay and similar payment apps).

b. Staff who handle cash or credit cards may not be involved in the preparation, handling, or delivery of food.

c. Restaurants may allow up to five (5) members of the public at one time inside to pick up their food or beverage orders while maintaining at least six (6) feet apart.

d. Hotel restaurants can deliver room service or offer pick-up services while following these guidelines.

e. Each day, management must ensure that no employees who have symptoms of illness or had close contact with a person with COVID-19 infection during the previous 14 days will be permitted to work.

Remaining closed: Restaurants (dine-in), food courts, cafes, coffeehouses, and other similar places of public accommodation offering food or beverage for on-premises consumption. Bars, taverns, brew pubs, breweries, microbreweries, distillery pubs, wineries, tasting rooms, special licensees, clubs, and other places of public accommodation offering alcoholic beverages for on-premises consumption. Cigar bars; movie and performance theaters, opera houses, concert halls and music halls.
